

GRECC PRESS

The Grecc Press has put out this edition in an effort to orient the students with the candidates running for offices. Forms were given to each candidate with the idea that he would write briefly on his platform. We have printed the results exactly as they were submitted to us without making any corrections or additions. Friday before the elections a supplementary edition will be published to allow those candidates who did not have sufficient time to draw up a platform to voice their qualifications. Anyone wishing to have a statement published Friday must leave it at the newspaper mailbox by 4 o'clock thursday afternoon.

CANDIDATE FOR FRESHMAN CLASS PRESIDENT

Frank Carrenzo:

I will strive for direct representation for the Freshman class of 1970!

Brian F. McKenna:

After observing the activities of the student government at G.C.C. since the start of the semester I feel that there is a need for change.

Since a college exists for the benefit of the students I feel that the students should have a greater say in establishing the policies of the school both academically and socially. At the present time the student government does not use it's power to their fullest extent or capabilities.

I also feel that the freshman class should have more representation in student government than the sophomore class because there are a greater number of freshman.

If elected I will strive to have these and other changes enacted to benefit both the freshmen class and the entire school.

CANDIDATES FOR VICE PRESIDENT OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STEVEN BAUVER:

Experience counts in a position like this. In high school I was Student Council President and in control of most of the activities for the school. I brought a lot of new ideas into the school system which everyone was in favor of. Although a vice-president is only second in command, I figure with this experience behind me could help out in matters and try new ideas.

RONALD J. FRAZZIN:

This being my first campaign for a political office of any kind, I will be the first to admit my lack of knowledge of the political structure of the Greenfield Community College student government and it's policies. But I feel that this could well be an asset rather than a liability. Having no previous experience with political structures and being an individual with a great respect for public consensus, I would do my best to aid the student body in rectifying any grievances they might have. I would also like to state that I will not be a tool of the Administration.

KIMBERLY WILLARD:

For a great school, I'll do everything in my power by joining with any students who feel there are any improvements necessary. Let's make better the best.

CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE FOR STUDENT GOVERNMENT

ANNE COACHE:

I am running for representative of the freshman class because I feel that the position is very important one and should be filled by someone who is really interested in the class and in C.C.C. as a whole. I am very interested and if I am elected, I will do my best to represent the freshman class at the student council meetings, by voicing the ideas and problems of the class.

MY EXPERIENCE WITH FRANK CARENZO

While interviewing Frank Carenzo, candidate for Freshmen class president, I learned lots about the workings of a "typical" politician. What impressed me most is the fact that for some strange reason his campaign manager who refused to give his name did a fantastic job of managing....of managing Frank. Frank stated that a charge is necessary in the parking situation: the teachers and students should share equal parking privileges and that cars shouldn't be towed away but if a towing system is necessary the towing fee should come out of the student activity fund. (Now, Frank is parking really that much of an activity? Why should the students pay for faculty towing if equal rights are given?) Anyway, when I questioning him on this issue his defensive manager popped up and curtly told me that, "You aren't here to question us on our policies just to interview us." He proceeded to giggle and tell me how the lounge desperately needs a stereo and how extra-curricular activities are the most important part of college.

So please before you vote, think about this article.
